Are you frustrated with your poetry career? There's good news: the publishing landscape has changed, and poets have more opportunities to sell their work than ever before. And guess what? Almost no one is pursuing these options. Navigate the new world of poetry publishing with indie poet author Michael La Ronn. Walks you through what it really means to be a poet in today's market and how to use the status quo to your advantage. In this book, you'll learn what the new landscape looks like and why you should take advantage of it now. Myths about poetry writing, common traps that poets fall into, why you should indie publish your next collection, and how to do it with style. How to think about your poetry as a business. Hint: it's not just submitting to literary magazines the right way to market a poetry collection without the help of a publisher. How MFA programs and literary magazines can adapt in order to thrive in this new world. All this and much more. Now is the time to take charge of your writing career. Buying this book may be the most important thing you do to reach new readers and improve your sales. This is the self-publishing book that poets have been waiting for. v1.0.

SlotcarMag is a magazine that has been selling all over the world, which means we could feature a much broader spectrum of subjects and skills than we had first envisaged. That the magazine is still around after four years is as much a testament to our contributors as it is to anything Marc Abbott and Ric Woods have done for this book. We each made a list of our favourite features from past issues where our choices coincided, an article was immediately in the remainder were decided on after a frank exchange of views and only as a last resort did we ever engage in arm wrestling. If you are a regular reader, I hope we have included some of your favourites too. If you are new to the magazine, I hope this will
