this volume attempts to join the disparate worlds of egyptian maghrebian south african francophone and anglophone african cinema that is five formations of african cinema these five areas are of particular significance each in its own way the history of south africa heavily marked by apartheid and its struggles differs considerably from that of egypt which early on developed its own hollywood on the Nile the history of french colonialism impacted the three countries of the maghreb tunisia algeria and morocco differently than those in sub saharan africa where senegal and sembène had their own great effect on the sahelian region anglophone africa particularly the films of ghana and nigeria has dramatically altered the ways people have perceived african cinema for decades history geography production distribution and exhibition are considered alongside film studies concerns about ideology and genre this volume provides essential information for all those interested in the vital worlds of cinema in africa since the time of the lumière brothers the populations of american cities have always included poor people but the predicament of the urban poor has worsened over time their social capital that is the connections and organizations that traditionally enabled them to form communities has shredded economically comfortable americans have come to increasingly care less about the plight of the urban poor and to think of them in terms of us and them considered lazy paupers in the early nineteenth century the urban poor came to be seen as a violent criminal underclass by the end of the twentieth living primarily in the nation s deindustrialized inner cities and making up nearly 15 percent of the population today s urban poor are oppressed people living in the midst of american affluence this book examines how law works for against and with regard to the urban poor with law being understood broadly to include not only laws but also legal proceedings and institutions law is too complicated and variable to be seen as simply a club used to beat down the urban poor but it does work largely in negative ways for them an essential text for both law students and those drawn to areas of social justice containment and condemnation shows how law helps create expand and perpetuate contemporary urban poverty focusing on contemporary issues this text showcases a large collection of regional poets laureate writing on subjects critical to understanding social justice as it relates to the great lakes region undocumented great lakes poets laureate on social justice includes writing by seventy eight poets who truly represent the diversity of the great lakes region including rita dove marvin bell crystal valentine kimberly blaeser mary weems karen kovacik wendy vardaman zora howard carla christopher meredith holmes karla huston joyce sutphen and laren mcclung among others city state and national poets laureate with ties to illinois indiana michigan minnesota new york ohio ontario pennsylvania and wisconsin appear in these pages organized around themes from the southern poverty law center s ten ways to fight hate a community response guide calling on readers to act on behalf of victims of social injustice upper peninsula literature has traditionally been suppressed or minimized in michigan anthologies and michigan literature as a whole even the upper peninsula itself has been omitted from maps creating a people and a place that have become in many ways ungeographic these people and this place are strongly made up of traditionally marginalized groups such as the working class the rural poor and native americans which adds even more insult to the exclusion and forced oppressive silence and here 100 years of upper peninsula writing 1917 2017 gives voice to upper peninsula writers ensuring that they are included in michigan s rich literary history ambitiously and here includes great u p writing from every decade spanning from the 1910s to the 2010s starting with lew r sarett s a k a lone caribou the blue duck a chippewa medicine dance and ending with margaret noodin s babejianjisemigad and sally brunk s kbic taken as a whole the anthology forcefully insists on the geographic and literary inclusion of the u p on both the map and the page
