a stunning achievement of research and storytelling that weaves together the major fronts of wwi into a single sweeping narrative publishers weekly starred review it was to be the war to end all wars and it began at 11 15 on the morning of june 28 1914 in an outpost of the austro hungarian empire called sarajevo it would officially end nearly five years later unofficially however it has never ended many of the horrors we live with today are rooted in the first world war the great war left millions of civilians and soldiers maimed or dead it also saw the creation of new technologies of destruction tanks planes and submarines machine guns and field artillery poison gas and chemical warfare it introduced u boat packs and strategic bombing unrestricted war on civilians and mistreatment of prisoners but the war changed our world in far more fundamental ways than these in its wake empires toppled monarchies fell and whole populations lost their national identities as political systems and geographic boundaries were realigned the social order shifted seismically manners and cultural norms literature and the arts education and class distinctions all underwent a vast sea change as historian martin gilbert demonstrates in this majestic opus of historical synthesis the twentieth century can be said to have been born on that fateful morning in june of 1914 publishers weekly starred review one of the first books that anyone should read
