an increasing number of historical and archaeological finds made around the world have been classified as out of place artifacts ooparts they have been called this because they appear unexpectedly among the ruins of the past with no evidence of a preceding period of development their technological sophistication seems far beyond the capabilities of ancient peoples drawing on the literature and art of the chaldeans sumerians babylonians and others rene noorbergen's contention is that a superior race of man was responsible for these scientific marvels that bear testimony to a civilization with technology comparable to our own heaven is my destination but it is not my destiny many will reach their destination but few will achieve their destiny prophetic parable matures into prophetic reality as his presence draws us into the realm of all god here what we believe becomes what we experience and what we know becomes flesh in mere mortal man when we leave egypt we leave the bondage we hate but when we leave the wilderness we must leave the sin we crave but he will not condemn what he has redeemed his blood covers us until his power delivers us this book is not for the casual reader it is for those who hunger not for education but for reality not for religion but for him the world awaits the love of a people who know they are forgiven taking the findings of behavioral economics from the cocktail party to the boardroom experimental economist kay yut chen leads an economics lab at hewlett packard the first of its kind at any company his groundbreaking research into human behavior has turned into tangible results for hp he has saved the company millions of dollars simply by explaining why people really do the things they do moneylab offers practical lessons being put to use right now at hp and other leading companies it explains for instance how to use incentives to influence employees suppliers and buyers determine whom to trust and how much reduce the negative effects of irrational behavior by noticing patterns that don't seem logical take advantage of the human tendency to game the system in the spirit of predictably irrational but with a more practical approach chen shows how to translate the findings of behavioral economics into concrete actions to achieve new levels of success this is the first full translation of marino sanudo torsello's secreta fidelium crucis to be made into english the work itself is a piece of crusading propaganda following the fall of acre in 1291 written between 1300 and 1321 but it includes much of historical relevance along with interesting observations on the early history of jerusalem and the crusader kingdom the translation is based upon the text edited by jacques bongars in 1611 there is an introduction that contextualises the book its author his sources and his audience the notes provide essential information to clarify internal textual references and allusions as well as the role of biblical references in sanudo s grand design the index is designed to make this detailed text usable and accessible in this his major work sanudo advocated the conquest of egypt as the means to regain jerusalem for the latins and worked through his points with considerable detail alongside references to 13th century mediterranean history especially involving louis ix of france and charles of anjou king of naples books i and ii give considerable detailed discussion of the concept plan and costs of his proposed crusade book iii provides an outline history of the crusades and the crusader states it is derived from a wide reading of other sources especially of william of tyre and for events after 1184 on the eracles the letters of james of vitry and sanudo s own experiences in the east throughout the work contains a staggering amount of cartographical ethnographical geographical and nautical information as well as numerous unique insights into historical events and personalities of the late 13th century not only in outremer but in western europe
