the debut collection of poems by bridget lowe the soul remembers all of this how i swept the floor with my golden hair how i fed it watermelon and wine from a porcelain dish how i called it teacher and it called me teacher s pet metaphysical in concern and hypermodern in tone bridget lowe returns in this appropriately titled much anticipated second collection determined as ever to make meaning from the perversity of suffering my second work is rare in its ability to be both completely idiosyncratic and widely resonant as lowe transforms experiences of shame disgust and bewilderment into a kind of mutant hope poems in this collection have appeared in the new yorker and poetry and were honored by the poetry society of america nijinsky s feeling mind the dancer writes the writer dances is the first in depth literary study of vaslav nijinsky s life writing through close textual analysis combined with intellectual biography and literary theory nicole svobodny puts the spotlight on nijinsky as reader she elucidates nijinsky s riffs on tolstoy dostoevsky and nietzsche equating these intertextual connections to marking a dance whereby the dancer uses a reduction strategy situated between thinking and doing by exploring the intersections of bodily movement with verbal language this book addresses broader questions of how we sense and make sense of our worlds drawing on archival research along with studies in psychology and philosophy svobodny emphasizes the modernist contexts from which the dancer writer emerged at the end of world war i nijinsky began his life writing a book he titled feeling the day after the paris peace conference opened and the same day he performed his last dance nijinsky s feeling mind begins with the dancer on stage and concludes as he invites readers into his private room illuminating the structure plot medium and mode of feeling this study calls on readers to grapple with a paradox the more the dancer insists on his writing as a live performance the more he points to the material object that entombs it st joseph of copertino began having mystical visions at the age of seven but it was not until he began practicing his faith as a franciscan priest that he realized the full potential of his mind s power over his body he was able to levitate throughout his priesthood st joseph became famous for frequent levitations that were observed on hundreds of occasions and by thousands of witnesses including many skeptics michael grosso delves into the biography of the saint to explore the many strange phenomena that surrounded his life and develops potential physical explanations for some of the most astounding manifestations of his religious ecstasy grosso draws upon contemporary explorations into cognition the relationship between the human mind and body and the scientifically recorded effects of meditation and other transcendent practices to reveal the implications of st joseph s experiences and abilities
