Practical Examples

Visual Descriptions Imagine a ballet grand jeté. A traditional approach focuses purely on height and precision. Incorporating Susan Au's influence might mean adding a subtle shift in weight, a subtle articulation of the torso, or a specific phrasing to imbue the jump with emotion and narrative. Instead of a purely technical execution, it becomes a statement. Similarly, consider a modern dance floor sequence. While the traditional approach emphasizes expression and improvisation, incorporating ballet's foundation might increase strength, balance, and control, leading to more powerful and precise movements. Picture a dancer executing a floor work sequence with the elegance and precision of a ballerina but expressing raw emotion and personal narrative. This is the synergy Susan Au's teachings likely aim to achieve.

A Howto Section: Analyzing Movement Through a Susan Au Lens

To analyze a dance sequence using the principles potentially influenced by Susan Au, follow these steps:

- 1. Technical Foundation First, dissect the movement technically. Identify the ballet elements (e.g., turnout, alignment, port de bras) and modern dance elements (e.g., floor work, contractions, releases).
- 2. Emotional Expression Consider the emotional intent. What story is being told? How is the emotion conveyed through the body's language? This reflects the focus on expressive freedom inherent in modern dance.
- 3. Musicality and Phrasing Examine how the movement relates to the music. Is the phrasing fluid and expressive? Are the dynamics and energy levels appropriate for the emotional narrative?
- 4. Integration of Technique and Expression Finally, assess how well the technical and expressive aspects are integrated. Is the technique serving the emotion, or does it overshadow it? This is the crucial element of Susan Au's potential influence, emphasizing a balance between technical precision and powerful storytelling.

Summary of Key Points

A singular Susan Au PDF may not exist, but numerous online resources reflect her influential teaching style. Her approach fuses rigorous ballet technique with the expressive freedom of modern dance. Finding relevant resources requires strategic online searches, exploring university websites, contacting dance schools, and engaging with online dance communities. Analyzing dance through her lens requires considering technical precision, emotional expression, musicality, and the integration of these elements.

5 Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

- 1 Q: Where can I find reliable information about Susan Au's teaching methods?
A: Start with targeted online searches, explore university dance department websites, and connect with the dance community through forums and social media.
- 2 Q: Is it necessary to have a strong ballet background to benefit from her approach?
A: While a ballet foundation is beneficial, her method seems to emphasize the integration of both ballet and modern styles, potentially making it accessible to dancers with various backgrounds.
- 3 Q: How can I incorporate her principles into my own dance practice A Focus on combining technical precision with emotional expression in your movements Pay close attention to musicality and phrasing Analyze your movement through the four steps mentioned above 4 Q Are there any specific exercises or drills recommended in her style A Specific exercises might not be widely available in a single document However combining exercises focusing on ballet technique with those emphasizing modern dance improvisation could approximate her approach 5 Q How does her approach differ from other balletmodern fusion techniques A The specific nuances are likely to vary depending on interpretation The key would be to find resources that highlight a distinctive emphasis on integrating technical proficiency with 4 impactful emotional storytelling a unique aspect often associated with her teaching Remember the search for knowledge about Susan Aus work may require some detective work But the rewards understanding a unique and powerful approach to dance are well worth the effort Happy dancing
