the church is one of the most intriguing and significant institutions on earth because its essence and character are so widely misunderstood this is a timely book the church is not a mere human institution though it is made up of human beings in community its roles and responsibilities are momentous but all the elements of its organization came about as the church developed and attempted to fulfill its divine mandate not as forms given at its founding these papers from a bingham colloquium at mcmaster divinity college treat the church then in studies of the church in the various parts of the new testament canon followed by a historical study of the church under attack in places where it did not survive the latter part of the book contains essays by several church practitioners from now who discuss their insights about and experiences with postmodern society home churches megachurches and the missional church such a combination of biblical theology history and practice makes this a valuable book for scholars and practitioners in fact for all thinking members of the church founded by jesus christ

one of the worst things of being a christian is to walk a straight line doing the best you can to be a good follower of jesus you don t commit adultery you don t steal nor do you lie and you love god with all your heart spirit soul and body many christians dedicate a lot of time and devotion to the ministry we are attending then one day we are listening to a person or a group of people s conversation or a minister teaching and then we realize there are some things we are missing what we heard intrigues our interest because we are already hungering and thirsting after god s word we realize this because the spirit of god quickens and speaks to our spirit usually it is something concerning our salvation god begins to tug at us through the word and we begin meeting other christians talking about the same subject god is dealing with us about the thing we mostly begin to deal with is facing the truth that we weren t walking in the fullness of christ jesus then having to make the decision to leave our friends family other christian brothers and sisters and most of all the church we re highly devoted to so we may attend your newly found church that is more in depth of god s word worship and at liberty in the praising of god so i wrote this book not to judge or to say i am more righteous than others not to say i am all right and they are wrong the bible tells us not to judge anything before the coming day of the lord i wrote this book after much research to enlighten those who read it of the history that is mostly forgotten hidden or changed by catholicism to fulfill their purpose of dominance to control not only christian history but also the history of the world there are even words and scriptures that have been modified to implement their teachings and beliefs i can t even begin to write all the modifications of church history according to catholicism that modified the course of history but in this book i ensure you there are important fragments of church history i ve abstracted to intrigue your interest remember only truth can make you free and ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free john 8 32 bishop william h martin author of this book the church in the church pastor of christian faith fellowship temple ozark al 36360 334 733 3085

the landscape of christian spirituality in the west is no longer lush with green grass and wild flowers blooming instead across the country we find dry terrain where churches no longer can expect interested seekers yet most of our solutions for addressing this predicament link to anxiety around our performance and personality rather than going back to the boardroom to cook up new techniques for a trendier church let s ask more meaningfully rooted questions do we know how to be present in our neighborhoods do we know how to be present in community do we know how to be present to the in breaking kingdom of god there is a growing groundswell discovering that we have become uprooted and detached from each other in the way we express being the church we need a subterranean movement that plunges below the surface into a way of being the people of god that carries an unwavering incarnational creed dan white jr uses crisp criticism narrative theology and tangible practices to uncover a hopeful pathway for being radically rooted in god s world for most people as professor kung notes the question is not whether this or that proposition is infallibly true but whether a persistence in truth can be ascribed to the church at all yet this is not a polemical book or simply another critical inquiry its aim is thoroughly pastoral to create a new awareness a new conviction of the power of christian truth by which the church has always lived and will continue to live in the future t p
