examining the role of home and family in the latter part of the 20th century this book covers such subjects as the single parent institutions and homes the role of the mother in the family and domestic architecture and domestic life for many of us the word home brings warm thoughts and happy memories far more than the dictionary's simple definition of a place of birth or one's living quarters for many of us home is where the heart is yet it is even more than that it is the secure environment that allows our hearts to develop a haven of growth quiet and rest the place where we love and are loved sadly though this kind of home is beginning to disappear as our busy society turns homes into houses where related people abide but where there is no heart with a desire to help you nurture your family's heart susan schaeffer macaulay presents a clear blueprint for constructing a home that survives the variety of situations that you face in modern life with jesus christ as the foundation using tools such as common sense realism and traditions you can build a secure loving environment where every member of your family can flourish
