generation to another by word of mouth the sumerians were the first to write down their oral traditions to make the historical record easier the sumerians invented calendars with exact dates of events and contracts often corroborated by astronomy since sumerian farmers invented irrigation and created a surplus other sumerians could choose to specialize in law education architecture engineering marketing and politics all of which were accompanied by written records using the writings of the sumerians and modern archaeology this book will trace the story of the sumerians the world's first writers the world's great religions depend on traditions of serious scholarship dedicated to preserving their key texts but also to understanding them and therefore to debating what understanding itself is and how best to do it they also have important public missions of many kinds and their ideas and organizations influence many other important institutions including government law education and kinship the anthropology of western religions ideas organizations and constituencies is a comparative survey of the world's major religious traditions as professional enterprises and often as social movements documenting the principle ideas behind western religious traditions from an anthropological perspective murray j leaf demonstrates how these ideas have been used in building internal organizations that mobilize or fail to mobilize external support the findings of assyriology have been applied to biblical studies ever since the former emerged as a scholarly discipline in the mid nineteenth century today the scholarly flow from assyriology to biblical studies continues yet rarely are the fruits of biblical scholarship brought to bear on the study of ancient assyria and babylon the present volume aims to reverse this unidirectional trend considering that the literature preserved in the hebrew bible is the product of a people who had significant contact with both assyria and babylonia then surely the study of the hebrew bible has something to offer assyriology but what the contributors approach this question from a variety of disciplinary perspectives including intellectual history museology and religious and political history the authors also offer broad methodological considerations and more focused text based case studies written by leading scholars in the fields of assyriology and hebrew bible jehu's tribute presents a fresh approach to the multifaceted relationship between assyriology and biblical studies in addition to the volume editors the contributors include céline debourse jessie degrado eckart frahm shalom e holtz gina konstantopoulos alan lenzi alice mandell dustin nash beate pongratz lesten seth sanders anthony p soohoo sj and abraham winitzer
