the sunday times no 1 bestselling memoir from harry redknapp from kicking a ball as a kid under the street lamps of poplar and standing on highbury s north bank with my dad to my first game at west ham i was born head over heels in love with football it saved me and 50 years on that hasn't changed one bit i'd be lost without it harry is the manager who has seen it all from a dismal 70s portakabin at oxford city and training pitches with trees in the middle to the unbeatable highs of the premiership lifting the fa cup and taking on real madrid in the champions league with his much loved no nonsense delivery harry brings us a story filled with passion and humour that takes you right inside every drama of his career harry finally tells the full story of all the controversial ups and downs the pain and heartache of his court case the england job his love for bobby moore his adventures at portsmouth with milan mandaric the southampton debacle tottenham and daniel levy and not forgetting his years at west ham or the challenges at his current club qpr it's the epic journey of one of the great managers and along the way the story of the british game itself over the last five decades in an era now dominated by foreign coaches harry is the last of an old fashioned breed of english football man one who has managed to move with the times and always come out fighting the hugely entertaining autobiography of one of the most popular and highly respected managers in the english football league steven gerrard is a hero to millions as the inspirational captain of liverpool fc and a key member of the england team his bestselling autobiography gerrard published in september 2006 is an honest and fascinating account of his life long obsession with football and the tensions and thrills of playing at the top level now the book is available in this abridged version that is perfect for all young football fans

harry redknapp is without doubt one of the most charismatic well respected managers in the premiership admired by home and rival supporters alike time and again he has worked wonders with limited budgets motivating his players to heights no one thought possible this is the story of a remarkable manager

final third the last word on our football heroes serves up another batch of funny absurd and jaw dropping tales discovered within more than 300 footballer autobiographies author john smith has pored over the memoirs of the great and the good as well as the not so good so you don't have to you're welcome final third paints an intimate picture of our favourite football figures using their own stories to show what makes them tick what unites and divides them and exactly what they are prepared to share with us they've seen things you wouldn't believe the eye opening stories include a defender deliberately driving a golf ball into jimmy hill's house a goalkeeper confronted by a witch doctor in his penalty area one football legend asking another to scale a church tower to stop the bells ringing a manager who was like catnip to the wives of his directors and the england captain who drifted down the thames it all adds up to a fun third volume of the definitive digest of the autobiographies of our football heroes this is the first full length biography of ron greenwood west ham united's most successful trophy winning manager a man who was instrumental in the development of 1966 world cup winning heroes moore hurst and peters ron lacked the ruthlessness of his more feted contemporaries bill shankly and don revie with whom his trophy success did not compare but his west ham team of the mid 1960s had its own moments of heady triumph an fa cup win in 1964 the club's first a european cup winners cup victory in 1965 only the second european win by an english club and crucially they were always easy on the eye even in defeat then there was the little matter of supplying three team members to england's world cup victory in 1966 at a tournament in which their perfection of greenwood s near post cross play proved devastating after 16 years at west ham greenwood became england manager in 1977 and led them to the 1982 world cup an impeccable sportsman deep thinker and skilled communicator he was a noble servant to football second yellow more adventures of our footballing heroes brings you more funny fascinating and downright baffling tales gleaned by authors john smith and dan trelfer from their unflagging research of over 240 footballer autobiographies together they have pored through the works of genuine legends cult heroes and players they can only dimly recall from their 1983 panini sticker albums to find stories and facts that will delight shock and confuse sometimes all at once there s the chairman who owned a ventriloquist s dummy called algernon there s the liverpool legend who set a team mate s wife s hair on fire there s the arsenal star who confronted some innocent fans with a samurai sword and there s the ipswich hero who took on sylvester stallone in an arm wrestling contest possibly inspiring stallone s half forgotten epic over the top this book covers all the bases of the typical footballer s life love violence gambling horrific injury banter it s mostly banter and apparently pigeons chelsea and england footballer frank lampard charts his life story from childhood to young west ham apprentice to multi millionaire world footballing celebrity and lynchpin of the national team includes a full account of the 2005 06 season and the 2006 world cup finals in germany this bibliography is an entertaining and knowledgeable tribute to the beautiful game the second edition features over 2000 new entries including greatly increased coverage of football films and music making over 7000 references to books and other items in total the sunday times bestseller the beautiful game has taught me a lot but i ve had quite a life outside of football too this book is full of my best stories kickabouts with jumpers for goalposts with bobby moore mine and sandra s disastrous honeymoon to torquay in a dodgy car and my funniest mr pastry moments as well as my thoughts on the important things in life i m finally sharing what i ve learned on and off the pitch from growing up poor in poplar to the heights of the premiership and even lying in a coffin with a load of rats on national television it s everything i know about true team spirit hard work tough times why family are so important and why everyone deserves respect no matter whether they re royal or sleeping rough and of course the real joy of a jam roly poly

a wonderful book a great read daily mail a fascinating book i really enjoyed it piers morgan good morning britain a heart warming funny and insightful read perfect for a rainy day by the fire fourfourtwo magazine one of the guardian s biggest books of autumn 2020 a beautiful book about football family friendship and finding out who you really are jack whitehall one of the best books i ve ever read about what it takes to become a pro frank lampard for the redknapp clan football is a family concern it s the family business me family and the making of a footballer is a deeply moving heartfelt and beautifully personal account of growing up as the second son of harry redknapp and also an enchanting love letter to football i m jamie redknapp chances are my surname rings a bell i want to introduce you to a colourful cast of characters from my formative years growing up dad and grandad pop told us tall stories from london s east end but there was no artistic licence needed when i was actually kicking a ball about with legends like george best bobby moore and geoff hurst this book is the story of my childhood and adolescence like many others i guess it s a pretty typical mix of caravans and lollies sweaty t shirts and paper rounds cheese sandwiches and glacier mints the a team e t and chinese takeaways but this is also the story of a journey through an extraordinary childhood obsession with football one minute it was all about shoot magazine endless keepy ups and countless impromptu kickabouts the next i m playing for bournemouth reserves against terrifying fully grown men then i got my move to kenny dalGLISH s liverpool i might ve been living off gristly sausages and smash potato in my dingy digs up on merseyside but i was living the dream i was desperately hoping it was the start of something special writing me family and the making of a footballer has helped me discover so much about myself this book is my way of explaining who and what have made me well me a completely revised and updated edition of the bestselling autobiography of cricketing legend ian botham including his first hand insight into the 1999 2000 winter tour to south africa sunday times bestseller passionate and well researched tatler a must read independent a social history of labradors and how they have become the world s most beloved dogs by writer presenter and long time dog lover ben fogle after 40 years in football management there s not a lot i haven t seen there ve been big highs but a fair share of lows too when i have to make difficult decisions i make a point of avoiding newspapers phone ins twitter all of it but there s always a load of armchair pundits waiting to start on me being a manager has never been easy but between the fans and the media it often feels impossible to get it right in it shouldn t happen to a manager i talk about how different the job is now from what it was like when i used to play for one managers used to drive up and down motorways all day to scout for players now there s so much analysis and global scouting it s a different thing completely in this book i share everything i ve learnt from a lifetime of both wins and losses and wisdom from greats like cloughie and ferguson i ll tell you about what actually happens in the dressing room including when clough smashed the door off its hinges the bust ups at full time like when i kicked a tray of sandwiches on don hutchinson s head and the times when i had to swap an arm round a player s shoulder for a boot up the arse it s my guide to being a manager the harry way
