what is the authentic gospel how do we answer the sceptics christianity is not a religion but god s good news for the world this implies that it has both a divine origin and a human relevance it comes from god and it speaks to our condition so before we ask what is the gospel we need to ask what is a human being chapter 1 the human paradox looks at what the bible teaches and what our experience endorses the glory and shame of our humanness both our dignity as creatures made in god s image and our depravity as sinners under his judgement chapter 2 human freedom what is traditionally called salvation seen in terms of authentic freedom chapters 3 and 4 the central themes of the death and resurrection of jesus securing our freedom this section also looks at a number of objections and denials chapter 5 the far reaching implications both for faith and for life radical indeed is the discipleship which takes all of this and christ s lordship seriously it s nothing short of a life changing message
