this is the first full length study of the impact of friedrich nietzsche s writings on the thought of french philosopher michel foucault focusing on the notion of genealogy in the thought of both nietzsche and foucault the author explores the three genealogical axes truth power and the subject as they gradually emerge in foucault s writings this complex of axes into which foucault was drawn especially as a result of his early history of madness called forth his explicit adoption of a nietzschean approach to his future work by interpreting foucault s histoire de la folie in the light of nietzsche s genealogy of tragedy mahon shows how the moral problematization of madness in history provides the historical conditions from which the three axes emerge after tracing the gradual emergence of the three axes through foucault's writings of the remainder of the 1960s especially les mots et les choses mahon turns to foucault's explicit methodological statements and his notion of genealogy and offers a reading of foucault's l'archéologie du savoir arguing that there is no chasm between foucault's archaeological writings and his genealogies the work concludes with an analysis of foucault's final writings on the genealogy of modern subjectivity and an examination of how truth power and the subject operate for the modern psychoanalytic subject of desire
