synkrêtic is an independent and not for profit journal with an indo pacific focus each issue combines new and public domain content on diverse topics in philosophy literature and culture broadly conceived the new yearbook for phenomenology and phenomenological philosophy provides an annual international forum for phenomenological research in the spirit of husserl s groundbreaking work and the extension of this work by such figures as scheler heidegger sartre levinas merleau ponty and gadamer the text of fitzgerald s 4th ver facing corresponding quatrains by nicholas aural architecture identifies those features of a building that can be perceived by the act of listening in them emerging from the challenge to reconstruct sonic and spatial experiences of the deep past this book invites readers into the complex world of the byzantine liturgy experienced in its chanted form in interiors covered with monumental mosaics and frescoes the multidisciplinary collection of ten essays explores the intersection of byzantine liturgy music acoustics and architecture in the late antique churches of constantinople jerusalem and rome and reflects on the role digital technology can play in re creating aspects of the sensually rich performance of the divine word geography of the gaze offers a new history and theory of how the way we look at things influences what we see focusing on western europe from the seventeenth to nineteenth centuries renzo dubbini shows how developments in science art mapping and visual epistemology affected the ways natural and artificial landscapes were perceived and portrayed he begins with the idea of the view explaining its role in the invention of landscape painting and in the definition of landscape as a cultural space among other topics dubbini explores how the descriptive and pictorial techniques used in mariners charts view oriented atlases military cartography and garden design were linked to the proliferation of highly realistic paintings of landscapes and city scenes how the picturesque system for defining and composing landscapes affected not just art but also archaeology and engineering and how the ever changing modern cityscapes inspired new ways of seeing and representing the urban scene in impressionist painting photography and stereoscopy a marvelous history of viewing geography of the gaze will interest everyone from scientists to artists
