japanese brazilian saudades explores the self definition of nikkei discourse in portuguese language cultural production by brazilian authors of japanese ancestry ignacio lópez calvo uses books and films by twentieth century nikkei authors as case studies to redefine the ideas of brazilianness and japaneseness from both a national and a transnational perspective the result suggests an alternative model of postcoloniality particularly as it pertains to the post world war ii experience of nikkei people in brazil lópez calvo addresses the complex creation of japanese brazilian identities and the history of immigration showing how the community has used writing as a form of reconciliation and affirmation of their competing identities as japanese brazilian and japanese brazilian japanese in brazil have employed a twofold strategic rhetorical engineering the affirmation of ethno cultural difference on the one hand and the collective assertion of citizenship and belonging to the brazilian nation on the other lópez calvo also grapples with the community s inclusion and exclusion in brazilian history and literature using the concept of epistemicide to refer to the government s attempt to impose a western value system brazilian culture and portuguese language on the nikkeijin while at the same time trying to destroy japanese language and culture in brazil by prohibiting japanese language instruction in schools japanese language publications and even speaking japanese in public japanese brazilian saudades contributes to the literature criticizing the cognitive injustice that fails to acknowledge the value of the global south and non western ways of knowing and being in the world with important implications for both latin american studies and nikkei studies it expands discourses of race ethnicity nationality and communal belonging through art and narrative resource extraction exists in diverse settings across the world and is carried out through different practices the global life of mines provides a comprehensive framework examining the spatial and temporal relationships between mining and postmining as interrelated and coexisting features within the global minescape the book brings together scholars from various fields such as anthropology geography sociology and political science examining ethnographic case studies throughout the americas bolivia brazil peru usa africa democratic republic of congo and europe italy arctic norway and spain this completely revised and updated edition provides information to cover every traveler s interests and every aspect of this immense and intriguing country gives a thorough view of an idiosyncratic nation washington post color photographs an essential chronological framework for students of portuguese literature this companion volume offers an introduction to european portuguese literature for university level readers it consists of a chronological overview of portuguese literature from the twelfth century to the present day by some of the most distinguished literary scholars of recent years leading into substantial essays centred on major authors genres or periods and a study of the history of translations it does not attempt an encyclopaedic coverage of portuguese literature but provides essential chronological and bibliographical information on all major authors and genres with more extensive treatment of key works and literary figures and a particular focus on the modern period it is unashamedly canonical rather than thematic in its examination of central authors and periods without neglecting female writers in this way it provides basic reference materials for students beginning the study of portuguese literature and for a wider audience looking for general or specific information the editors have made a principled decision to exclude both brazilian and african literature which demand separate treatment stephen parkinson claudia pazos alonso and t f earle are all members of the sub faculty of portuguese at the university of oxford contributors vanda anastácio helena carvalho buescu rip cohen t f earle david frier luís gomes mariana gray de castro helder macedo patricia odber de baubeta hilary owen stephen parkinson cláudia pazos alonso juliet perkins teresa pinto coelho phillip rothwell mark sabine claire williams clive willis
