love and life how people describe them everybody wants them but what are they reminds me of a song by the band foreigner i want to know what love is which is sung by numerous artists so compelling is the message that it captures our hearts and imaginations from a life of heartache and pain the protagonist doggedly continues on his search for love hence the title of the song i want to know what love is clearly the protagonist has never had any rewarding experience of love that is our first inference second we hope that he has not put the rest of his life on hold while he waits for love to drop into his lap third we get the impression that he is labouring under some sort of a handicap or that he is trying too hard have you ever heard this said about love love is like a butterfly the more you chase it the more it eludes you but if you quietly turn your attention to other things it comes and alights softly on your shoulder the first part of the statement is definitely true the second part whether it will come and sit softly on your shoulder at some point will depend on the handicaps circumstances of your life one thing is for sure turning your attention to other things if they are worthwhile will make you grow and mature as a person never a truer statement than this happiness is making a bouquet out of those flowers within reach however you define flowers perhaps something creative that brings happiness to you as well as others could that also be seen as a form of happiness at the very least this book is full to the brim with fun and entertainment the antics of the house dog winston the humorous side of ageing in old ain t for sissies the fun and laughter shared with my best friend at scrabble which only goes to show how scrambled our brains are the thrill and excitement of simulated sports contests serendipity being able to spend part and parcel of our time dwelling within the world of rock musical manna from heaven a world where the meaning of sunny day everything s a ok has never been forgotten at most by incorporating good values into its lyrics our thesis is that rock music becomes most powerful vehicle for popular education of young and old alike because of the attractiveness of music and esp rock music as packaging for education teaching great often christian type values is one thing seeing them implemented is an altogether different kettle of fish will rock music ever be able to spread its values beyond the idealistic young will the power of love ever rule the world will rock music enable empower us to solve the world s problems i don t know the answer to these questions but i do know that rock music transformed my existence into a life worth having the inner world that opened up before my ears and eyes made me feel like a million bucks and is the closest thing to heaven ever to come my way may we carry on this way s il vous plait in this life we must eat and drink to stay alive we have in different areas of the world some more than others snow rain and wind sunshine and cool days for the harvest these seasons all interact to bring forth food with the help of the farmers so whatever season you go through let it produce we all know the adage when life gives you lemons make lemonade who doesnt love seventy degree weather in the winter but we need the cold to ward off germs so know that every season has its ups and downs just prepare for the ride with coats and snow boots umbrellas and rain boots shorts and a t shirt sunscreen a sweater so depending on where you live gear up we cant stop the seasons but we can put on our gear i love the season of rest as any crop has to sit still for a while so be still and know that god is good ephesians 6 1018 tells us to put on the whole armor of god as christians we are combating spiritual forces versus seasonal forces the armor is used interchangeably but we need it on at all times so that we will be able to stand against the wiles of the devil and as you can see god has our back ever wanted to know how my mind works or what i think i invite you to take a journey through my mind via my poems nate marshall was paying close attention when chuck d said rap is cnn for black people in his hard hitting chapbook blood percussion marshall takes the hard rhymer s words and masterfully applies them to poetry turning his eye toward gun play free lunches skull caps prayers and praise songs with wit and fierce music these poems take on the subjects that can t find a space on the evening news reminding the reader again and again that there is power and grace in truth telling even when those truths are difficult to hear adrian matejka housing experts and activists have long described the foundational role race has played in the creation of mass homeownership this book insistently tracks the inverse the role of mass homeownership in changing the definition perception and value of race in the residential is racial adrienne brown reveals how mass homeownership remade the rubrics of race from the early cases realtors made for homeownership s necessity to white survival through to the 1968 fair housing act reading real estate archives and appraisal textbooks alongside literary works by f scott fitzgerald john steinbeck lorraine hansberry richard wright gwendolyn brooks james baldwin ralph ellison john cheever and thomas pynchon brown goes beyond merely identifying the discriminatory mechanisms that the real estate industry used to forestall black homeownership rather she reveals that redlining and other forms of racial discrimination are perceptual modes changing what it means to sense race and assign it value resituating residential discrimination as a key moment within the history of perception and aesthetics as well as of policy demography and democracy we get an even more expansive picture of both its origins and its impacts this book discovers that the racial honing of perception on the block seeing race like a bureaucrat an appraiser and a homeowner has become central to the functioning of the residential itself
