if you want to change the world change the university our culture is undergoing radical change we see evidence of this cultural revolution all around us as values norms language and laws all shift beneath our feet but this revolution didn't come out of nowhere and it isn't too late to stop it the progressive miseducation of america is an eye opening look at how our universities have polluted the cultural landscape we live in today and how christians can take strategic actions in response as a dedicated student of culture and revolutionary history corey miller brings clear insights and actionable ideas to help you understand and defend against ideas subversive to the christian faith further the christian life and worldview through intentional methods of being salt and light inspire change not only within your family and church but in the broader culture sobering yet optimistic this bold and inspiring resource will equip you to take concrete steps in making the largest and most sustainable difference in both your community and the world what is the nature of communicative competence carol kates addresses this crucial linguistic question examining and finally rejecting the rationalistic theory proposed by noam chomsky and elaborated by jerrold j katz among others she sets forth three reasons why the rationalistic model should be rejected 1 it has not been supported by empirical tests 2 it cannot accommodate the pragmatic relation between speaker and sign and 3 the theory of universal grammar carries with it unacceptable metaphysical implications unless it is interpreted in light of empiricism kates proposes an empiricist model in place of the rationalistic theory a model that in her view is more consistent with recent findings in linguistics and psycholinguistics in attempting to clarify the nature of utterance meaning kates develops theoretical perspectives on phenomenological empiricism and produces an account of reference and intentionality directly relevant to empirically based theories of speaking and understanding among the major topics addressed in the book are transformational generative and universal grammar cognitive theories of language acquisition pragmatic structure predication and topic comment structure and empiricism and the philosophical problem of universals an innovative and probing work pragmatics and semantics will be welcomed by philosophers linguists and psycholinguists
