an eerie alienating yet comic and profoundly sympathetic short story collection about americans in america by one of indonesia s most prominent writers now in an english translation for its fortieth anniversary with a foreword by intan paramaditha a penguin classic in these seven stories of people from bloomington our peculiar narrators find themselves in the most peculiar of circumstances and encounter the most peculiar of people set in bloomington indiana where the author lived as a graduate student in the 1970s this is far from the idyllic portrait of small town america rather sectioned into apartment units and rented rooms and gridded by long empty streets and distances traversable only by car it s a place where the solitary can all too easily remain solitary where people can at once be obsessively curious about others yet fail to form genuine connections with anyone the characters feel their loneliness acutely and yet deliberately estrange others budi darma paints a realist world portrayed through an absurdist frame morbid and funny at the same time for decades budi darma has influenced and inspired many writers artists filmmakers and readers in indonesia yet his stories transcend time and place with the people from bloomington budi darma draws us to a universality recognized by readers around the world the cruelty of life and the difficulties that people face in relating to one another while negotiating their own identities the stories are not about strangeness in the sense of culture race and nationality instead they are a statement about how everyone regardless of nationality or race is strange and subject to the same tortures suspicions yearnings and peculiarities of the mind
