at the heart of the book is a detailed account of four major events that significantly shaped the history of venice the formation of the holy league the coalition that brought the republic into conflict with the ottoman empire the victory of that league against the turkish fleet at the battle of lepanto the ceremonial arrangements that were made to welcome henry iii of france to the city in 1574 and the devastating plague of 1575 7 this central part is frame by two others the first concentrates on st mark s square the buildings that surround it and the social and religious life that used it as a backdrop this involves reconstruction of the historical and mythical events that gradually led to the elaboration by jacopo sansovino and others of a monumental civic arena invested with layers of meaning that were fundamental to a sense of venetian identity the final section considers how the major events of the 1570s and above all the victory at Lepanto were metabolized in Venetian history and reconfigured in the realms of memory and myth. Important factors in this process were the role of the printing press. Venice lay at the heart of the Italian booktrade in disseminating accounts of current events and reworking them into a further elaboration of the myth of Venice and the ritual and other transformations that took place such as the construction of Palladio's church of the Redentore and their connection to the religious matrix that provides the key to the civic ethos of the city. In the late sixteenth century Venice had become the city of God. Rabat de la Jaquette
