where was jesus between the ages of 12 and 30 the bible says nothing of these years or his whereabouts during that time there are clues however and the author follows some of them in this book bringing us to a conclusion which he feels is the most obvious because this book is easy to read it is recommended for young readers as well as old excerpt from jesus christ and the world today the aim of these studies is to seek in and through the mind and experience of jesus christ the way of life for individuals churches classes and nations that shall lead toward a solution of our present problems we believe that jesus christ is the hope of the world the studies assume this belief and attempt to analyze its implications for the world today they do not attempt how ever to present an economic or political program we believe that such programs are very definitely the concern of christians but intelligent discussion of programs must follow a clear analysis of our personal share in social wrongs and of the kind of relationships we should try to express in our economic and political life just as the preparation of these studies was begun the untried door by the reverend richard roberts came to us we read it with a deep sense of agreement and gratitude we must express our indebtedness also to the late walter rauschenbusch whose christianity and the social crisis translated for us several years ago the hope of the kingdom into terms of modern life about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works excerpt from the public life of our lord jesus christ the miracles of this period are comparatively few this only means that few are recorded the evangelists being occupied in relating the incidents which are more peculiar to the time of which they are speaking it cannot be doubted that wherever our lord went in the course of his preaching he marked his way by these prodigies of charity and compassion this is obvious when we consider that by a kind of accident though nothing in the arrangement of the gospels is really accidental we have in the last chapters of this volume the history of a few successive hours and these are full of miracles of the first class the stilling of the storm on the lake the casting out of the legion of devils the cure of the woman with an issue of blood the raising to life of the daughter of jairus followed by the cure of two blind men and the casting out of the devil from one who was also dumb all these things happened within a period of twenty four hours of which we have the complete account in the gospels and these were miracles in many cases worked almost against our lord's will that is which were to some extent forced upon him by the circumstances of the time about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such judgment repentance forgiveness baptism revelation and much more is all about the two little known gifts of resurrection and eternal life that jesus provided for fallen mankind are detailed the scriptures teach but mainstream clerics ignore that heaven is not one but three separate degrees of glory see i corinthians 15 40 41 the lowest is the telestial which is like unto the glory of a twinkling star the terrestrial realm is next which is like unto the visibility of the moon the celestial is the highest and by comparison is like unto the glory of the sun one s righteous conduct on this earth does determine the degree of eternal glory that one will attain after death much is on the line so it behooves every person to be keenly aware of where the path is on this earth in order to qualify for the highest glory hereafter
