a light hearted read from david s and sue s versions of the camino de santiago in spain david is an experienced hiker having walked the bibbulmun track in western australia 1000 kilometres in 43 days and te araroa trail in new zealand 3000 kilometres in 119 days and more recently the pacific crest trail 4 200 kilometres in 4 months and 8 days life is simple with his backpack full of food equipment and tent whereas sue likes coffees soft beds and showers this was a compromise to walk at least once together on their six month backpacking trip around europe walking 800 kilometres in seven weeks approximately twenty kilometres a day was a challenge for both david usually walks forty kilometres a day with a personal best of sixty kilometres in a day so he had to slow down for sue this was just a challenge however with lots of cafes and a hot shower and soft bed at the end of each day to look forward to it was a great way to spend time in each other s company david has gone back to packing his tent and continuing to walk the list of walks he wants to accomplish while sue is happy to wait at home and edit his journals when he hikes overseas she will follow him in a train bus cruise or just do her own thing with a husband and wife version of walking the camino they are different in retelling their stories sit back with a coffee or beer and enjoy the read funny touching and inspiring a book about really walking the camino de santiago perhaps it was the onset of middle age or just too much diet cola but in the spring of 2010 canadian boy randall st germain felt called to take on the 800 kilometer or 500 mile camino de santiago pilgrimage from st jean pied de port france to santiago de compostela spain seriously what ensued was a dedication to his mother a personal challenge and a journey of cultural and historical enlightenment a million footsteps and a few pounds of gauze and tape later he arrived in santiago de compostela with a better understanding of himself and a newfound familiarity with snoring and flatulent pilgrims join st germain on his adventure in camino de santiago in 20 days an irreverently chuckle inducing look at one man s attempt at the famed walk as he confronts apocalyptic weather snarling dogs epic blisters an exhausted body and his greatest paranoia in life bed bugs along with his humorous reflections there is practical insight into how he successfully prepared packed and then walked across the entire french way in 20 days and in doing so pushed far beyond his personal comfort zone never to be included on the final list of pulitzer prize nominees or in oprah s book club camino de santiago in 20 days is not your granddaddy s camino book either one word of caution pilgrim discretion is advised
