the world is going green sustainable technologies such as renewable energy and electric vehicles are increasingly becoming part of our daily life this dissertation fills the ensuing gap by providing an insight into the emerging german greentech industry one of the largest in the world it develops an integrated and interdisciplinary theoretical framework in which to assess the relationships between innovation growth and financing from a firm level perspective it then tests this framework empirically in essence the study finds that 1 innovative activity and corporate growth depend heavily on the availability of capital at the same time it appears that particularly innovative firms are more likely to face financial constraints 2 a lack of funds is very apparent for around a quarter of the firms investigated and seems most severe in the early part of the growth state where firms focus on commercializing existing products 3 government support programs only partially offset these effects an engrossing and richly panoramic novel from a major new writer based on a true story in 1948 the body of an american journalist is found floating in the bay off thessaloniki a small time greek journalist is tried and convicted for the murder but when he s released twelve years later he claims his confession was the result of torture flash forward to contemporary greece where a rebellious young high school student is given an assignment for a school project find the truth and as he begrudgingly takes it on he begins to make a startling series of gripping discoveries about history love and even his own family s involvement based on the real story of famed cbs reporter george polk journalism s prestigious polk awards were named after him the scapegoat is a sweeping saga that brings together the greece of the post world war ii era with the greece of today a country facing dangerous times once again as told by key players in the story the dashing journalist s greek widow the mother and sisters of the convicted man the brutal thessaloniki chief of police a u s foreign office investigator and finally the modern day student in the novel s most stirring narration of all the scapegoat confronts questions of truth justice and sacrifice and how the past is always with us the central research objective of the dissertation is to assess the suitability of social responsible investments sris as well as alternative investments for the strategic asset allocation of german pension insurance funds pensionskassen using a vector error correction model we estimate the data generating process of the underlying input variables a bootstrap simulation allows generating future return paths of the underlying portfolios these return distributions will subsequently be used as input for different asset allocation strategies the empirical results of our research study offer valuable conclusions 1 sri structured portfolios consistently perform better than conventional portfolios 2 including alternative investments has a beneficial effect on the risk return distribution and 3 derivative overlay structures mitigate downside risk exposure without impacting average fund performance in terms of alternative allocation models 1 high equity portfolios lead to an increase in return volatility without sufficiently compensating investors with higher returns 2 hedging against price increases by engineering a portfolio with inflation suitable assets yields mixed results 3 a portfolio composition that combines derivative overlay strategies for both equities and corporate bonds and uses sri screened assets as underlying generates the best results
