from cnn s abby phillip a triumphant new look at jesse jackson s presidential campaigns of the 1980s and how they changed black political power a joyful rich must read biography of a politician whose flaws and gifts were in constant intense competition jake tapper jesse jackson the civil rights leader activist raconteur and political candidate finally gets a book worthy of his stature courtesy of cnn anchor abby phillip focusing on his presidential runs in 1984 and especially 1988 phillip highlights how jackson built an unlikely coalition that showed how black political power could be consolidated his experience working under martin luther king his organizing the slcc s operation breadbasket in chicago and beyond and his roots in the deep south combined into two astonishingly impactful presidential campaigns appealing to the working people of urban enclaves like that of chicago young people on college campuses and black people across the south he created the modern democratic coalition one that has been used by all major democrats seeking national success from obama to biden to harris with her expert reporting natural storytelling skills and a story so full of humanity politics and hope abby phillip has written a rousing popular history that sheds new light on an american icon the bootleg guide is the ultimate in reference works for the 1960s and the 1970s bootleg recordings within these pages lies a history of rock at its best as performed on stage or in the studio each entry is catalogued by title date featured tracks and contains a quality rating and comments on the nature and origin of the recording cross references are provided to other titles and extensive information is available on alternate titles of bootlegs in many cases quirky facts about a particular title are given something that in itself may make a title a highly desirable and sought after rarity amongst collectors limited editions are listed to help the reader and collector develop a clearer picture of just how obtainable a bootleg may be bootlegs are unofficial live and studio recordings of artists and bands that are released onto vinyl tape or cd by definition most are so rare that they change hands only for vastly inflated sums or are traded by networks of dedicated collectors worldwide serious fans and collectors have been known to spend as much as 225 for an original scratchy vinyl recording of bands like deep purple and the grateful dead dating back to the early seventies the rarest of all are akin to valuable paintings as far as collectors and traders are concerned the new grammar in action series is a streamlined fun filled course in english that immediately gets students speaking reading and writing in the language more than just grammar books this super popular series actively prepares students for success in english outside of class the first history of the battered women s shelter movement in canada no place to go traces the development of transition houses and services for abused women and the campaign that made wife battering a political issue nancy janovicek focuses on women s groups in small cities and rural communities examining anti violence activism in thunder bay kenora nelson and moncton she also pays close attention to aboriginal women in northwestern ontario where the connections between family violence and the devaluation of indigenous culture in canadian society complicated efforts to end domestic violence this book lays bare the aims and challenges of establishing women s shelters in non urban areas the local histories presented here show how transition houses became hubs in a larger movement to change attitudes about domestic violence and to lobby for legislation to protect women
