unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 we have not used ocr optical character recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 in books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc we have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy this is a book about pastoral priorities and parochial spirituality mr thornton argues that considerations of biblical and philosophical theology history and psychology alike demand that pastoral work should be based on that remnant of faithful souls often very few in number to be found in any parish and that their training and direction is of very much greater importance than devising schemes to interest the multitude he argues forcefully against the parochial activity which aims at adding numbers of individuals to the church by methods of recruitment this he holds to be theologically unsound and ascetically ineffective his faith is that god will add to the church such as are being saved when there is at the heart of the parish this remnant living by rule a center of adoration and charity the rightful heir he contends of medieval monastic order there is probably no other modern work which attempts such a serious and thorough examination of the type of spirituality to which christians can aspire in the world today this much needed book fully integrates principles of pastoral care leadership and theology to restore to ministers a clearly defined pastoral identity moving from a critique of inadequate models for ministry from community organizer to t v evangelist oden develops a more classical model rich in its references to the past and compatible both with christian faith and theology through the ages and with current needs reconciling classical tradition with practice pastoral theology will be a standard resource and reference in the field oden distills the best ideas of the two millennia of ecumenical christian thinking concerning what pastors are and do pastoral theology provides the foundational knowledge of the pastoral office requisite to the practice of ministry it will be of interest to persons preparing for ordination in its review of key issues at the same time pastoral theology will appeal to all those who have considered entering the ministry those who want to know more about what clergy do and why and those ministers who want to review their ongoing work in the light of a systematic reflection on the pastoral gifts and tasks how can we work toward mutual understanding in our increasingly diverse and interconnected world pastoral theologian melinda mcgarrah sharp approaches this multifaceted interdisciplinary question by beginning with moments of intercultural misunderstanding using misunderstanding stories from her experience working with the peace corps in suriname dr mcgarrah sharp argues that we must recognize the limits of our own cultural perspectives in order to have meaningful intercultural encounters that are more mutually empowering and hopeful bringing together resources from pastoral theology ethnography and postcolonial studies she provides a valuable resource for investigating the complexity of providing care and fostering communities of belonging across cultural differences mcgarrah sharp illustrates a process of moving from disconnection to regard for diverse others as neighbors who share a common yearning for hopeful and meaningful connection leaders in faith communities practitioners of care and scholars will all be able to use this resource to better understand the conflicts tensions and uncertainties of our postcolonial twenty first century world an included discussion guide facilitates classroom study small group discussion and personal reflection

james fowler s work as the originator of faith development research his use of the theories of jean piaget and erik erikson for theology has been widely acclaimed for its profound impact on the field of religious education and for its promise for other fields a taut analysis of black liberation theology connecting scholarship to practical congregational ministry the chapters of this book focus on liberation and evangelism the urban community and black theology as well as church administration worship education and self esteem in pastoral care in the classical tradition andrew purves argued that pastoral care and theology has long ignored scripture and christian doctrine and pastoral practice has become secularized in both method and goal the fiefdom of psychology and the social sciences he builds further on this idea here presenting a christological basis for ministry and pastoral theology in today s world the challenge of care is how to respond to people s emotional as well as their economic circumstances how can we

be respectful of the individual and the community in ways that affirm both how are we to live respectfully with difference and ambiguity where shall we find our models of life and care from the dominant western or else some kind of global perspective that includes indigenous knowledge in our theologies do we continue to privilege the study of abstract conceptual theory or do we give place to pragmatic aesthetic and nonverbal forms in the face of increasing extremism terrorism and violence is it possible to make a sensible choice between radical relativism and absolute essentialism are we to be drawn towards the various expressions of religion or to the opportunities and ambiguities of spirituality as it is called upon in many societies today with the scarce resources available or allocated to health care in many national budgets across the world shall we give greater attention to the eradication of disease through increasingly advanced technologies and therapeutic strategies or to the promotion of health through primary health care and public health education pastoral theology in an intercultural world presents practical theological resources for the broad vision deep passion and thoughtful action needed for pastoral care in the twenty first century drawing upon the long history of care in the sacramental mission of the clergy especially since the reforms of vatican ii father duffy offers a new model that can stimulate both catholic and protestant pastoral care to fresh thinking and imaginative reconstruction the model derives from the catechumenate that lengthy process of study and service which down through the ages has preceded baptism and guided christian formation reflecting a judicious use of interdisciplinary insights and praxis theology father duffy s vision represents an ecumenical contribution to sharpened focus and strengthened identity for pastoral care and practice
