mirza asadullah khan ghalib was born in agra in the closing years of the eighteenth century he wrote in both urdu and persian and was also a great prose stylist ghalib fascinates his readers for many reasons but one of the most noted qualities in ghalib was that he was a careful even strict editor of his work it is said that he discarded or disregarded more than half of his urdu verses these verses were forgotten for long until as late as 1918 in the library of the princely state of bhopal in 1921 they were edited and published as a new divan e ghalib in flowers in a mirror mehr afshan farooqi continues her research in the strain of her first book a wilderness at my doorstep she examines ghalib s approach to his work the world in which he lived and composed and ultimately his genius she selects 30 ghazals from the rejected corpus translates them into english and provides an erudite sparkling critical commentary through this book she highlights the significance of marginalized poetry and the need to reinstate the forgotten verses in our lives and hearts a selection of ghalib s ghazals in devnagri and english along with the english translations
