some people can imagine a monkey someday becoming a man in nature and imagine the man who may become in nature an angel and even more than an angel transcendence means going beyond any limits or restrictions exceed a certain level a theme of the most musing is the concept of man as a being able to overcome their own barriers and become apparent more than matter something more than death more than chemistry is that actually possible all the walls that appear at the beginning of these approaches run into the paradigm of the death of the body the biological vehicle a lack of strong evidence or fully convincing what happens then to this point when it comes to our mind our consciousness our soul or our spirit the life of most human become to a frustrated career limited by enjoy a moment of pleasure that can give the senses even if an analytical mind would know judge that there is an invisible referee of causes and effects that go beyond the visual phenomena and that our subconscious warns us cautious about the possibility of a trial in the hereafter what if we discover that everything we think we know about the universe is nothing but an illusion a holographic projection quantum in various dimensions created by a mind of which we are an

intrinsic part incomprehensibly with the naked eye death state that we perceive as traumatic and totally end would be part of this illusory dream a misconception of our own mind while this would be riddles within riddles that with effort and will be resolved so that man knows his true identity and pre existence what if we knew that we are not this body we look in the mirror but far from these senses of physical there is hiding an immortal body that is an individualized part of one great consciousness experiencing a psychic matrix with phenomena that seem real so we could understand differently the cosmos to assume that we are imprisoned in a lower avatar subject to laws of a multiverse full of mazes we were part of a large number of souls who come from another universe and experiencing an unreality artificial creations based on ego of the collective mind of which we are part within these almost limitless experiences we are subject to various invisible laws that neither animals nor men nor angels nor gods can avoid and which require a balance between light and chaos in all universes galaxies dimensions star systems densities of vibration planets and planes of reality life and death how it feels in them being such a seemingly real dream playing part of a predetermined script where cause and effect and destiny on these throw the soul to different scenarios whose antagonism is precisely our criterion of life and death each as area and or circumstance sphere of competence and the time lapse is responsible within time and space maya is just a cosmos behind a veil to be pierced we must not fall into the deception of assuming that we are only a chemical result of random and haphazard processes have no role or existential purpose except survival no longer exist big mistake fatal fallacies of ego mind as creator of all light as principle of the vibration of the cosmic energy of the great logos who becomes aware of itself duality as reasoning of separation a vehicle of vital force within the range of power light multiple life experiences a death that is not death death that is supposedly death transcendence lighting awakening consciousness sleep created by ourselves and unification with the one that we ve never left welcome to the resurrection way before to die what do you believe about souls there are many very different doctrines taught in the world today concerning souls that are believed to be in all humans by most a soul is believed to be something that is wholly apart from the person a soul is in that a soul is something that is that is believed to be complete in its self without the person it will live after the person it is in is dead it is believed that a soul will exist forever without the person it will never be dead therefore a soul cannot be resurrected from the dead it is believed that a soul must live someplace forever and it will live either in heaven or hell even if there is no resurrection the doctrine of unconditional immortality of a deathless soul being in a person and that soul leaving that person at the death of the person makes it impossible for christ to have give his life to save that soul from death if a soul had immortality it would already have life and could never not have life all christ could do is give it a reward or punish it aristotle is a severe critic of traditional religion believing it to be false yet he also holds that traditional religion and its institutions are necessary if any city including the ideal city he describes in the politics is to exist and flourish this book provides for the first time a coherent account of the socio political role which aristotle attributes to traditional religion despite his rejection of its content mor segev argues that aristotle thinks traditional religion is politically necessary because it prepares the ground for what he considers the pinnacle of human endeavor attaining the knowledge of first philosophy whose objects are real beings worthy of being called gods developing this interpretation segev goes on to analyze aristotle s volume 5 demon king s domination this is a shortcut for cultivation filled with slaughter and blood but i like it i want chaos the more chaos the better a story of a villain fang yuan who was reborn 500 years into the past with the spring autumn cicada he painstakingly refined with his profound wisdom battle and life experiences he seeks to overcome his foes with skill and wit ruthless and amoral he has no need to hold back as he pursues his ultimate goals in a world of cruelty where one cultivates using gu magical creatures of the world fang yuan must rise up above all with his own power humans are clever in tens of thousands of ways gu are the true refined essences of heaven and earth the three temples are unrighteous the demon is reborn former days are but an old dream an identical name is made anew a story of a time traveler who keeps on being reborn a unique world that grows cultivates and uses gu the spring and autumn cicada the venomous moonlight gu the wine insect all encompassing golden light insect slender black hair gu gu of hope and a great demon of the world that does exactly as his heart pleases heaven and earth devils ran rampant ghosts and bloodthirsty and he was well established in the world cultivating heaven defying techniques a word could be spoken day and night while a word could be spoken to cause stars to fall his words were like a myriad of curses and his gaze was like a curse it could intimidate all worlds and could end the lives of hundreds of millions of creatures i want all the stars in the universe to be my eyes i want all living things to understand my own will zhou qing this little volume does not pretend to be in any sense a life of our lord the object of the author has been simply to contribute something toward the realization of a present saviour always accessible to every sincere heart that is seeking him to aid the reader in forming correct opinions concerning the work of christ i have briefly given my views of the atonement whilst passing through the deep waters of affliction the mind of the writer has dwelt with special emphasis upon the great doctrine of the real presence of christ that this book may enable some reader to obtain a clearer and stronger sense of the glorious truth that god is in christ reconciling the world unto himself and that the blessed influence of the divine comforter may be manifested in the hearts of those who may read this feeble tribute of gratitude to him who hath redeemed us from sin and death are the earnest prayers of the author preface davis baird s grandfather earl clement davis 1876 1953 was a unitarian minister from 1905 to 1953 baird was born a year after his grandfather died and never knew him but he inherited a trunk of his manuscripts he grew up without any religion today he would be called a none one with no religious affiliation or church membership this book shares his discovery of his grandfather s approach to religion his grandfather denied any supernatural sources for or elements of religion he was an enthusiastic advocate for science he vigorously argued against all
