divided opinion on the topic of this book has caused controversy in baptist history and life most baptist individuals and churches have strongly opposed women deacons some baptist associations have even disfellowshipped churches that have approved women deacons and women in general have been suppressed by many recent actions of the southern baptist convention thereby affecting women deacons however thousands of baptist churches include women in their deacon bodies and find that they make invaluable contributions the book presents arguments on both sides of the topic but lands squarely in support of women deacons

the first volume of this work covering the period from 1741 1850 was issued in 1931 by another publisher and is reissued now without change under our imprint the second volume covers the period from 1850 to 1865 the third volume the period from 1865 to 1885 for each chronological period mr mott has provided a running history which notes the occurrence of the chief general magazines and the developments in the field of class periodicals as well as publishing conditions during that period the development of circulations advertising payments to contributors reader attitudes changing formats styles and processes of illustration and the like then in a supplement to that running history he offers historical sketches of the chief magazines which flourished in the period these sketches extend far beyond the chronological limitations of the period the second and third volumes present altogether separate sketches of seventy six magazines including the north american review the youth s companion the liberator the independent harper s monthly leslie s weekly harper s weekly the atlantic monthly st nicholas and puck the whole is an unusual mirror of american civilization manuscript by robert baker on the history of the first baptist church of charleston south carolina the book was published by broadman press in 1982 and jointly authored by paul craven
