the publication of the first edition of the cross our only hope in 2008 established it as a foundational work of contemporary holy cross spirituality this thoroughly revised edition which features many new contributions is a must have for members of the congregation of holy cross its friends lay collaborators benefactors and anyone interested in the spiritual tradition of the religious order priests and brothers of the congregation of holy cross including pastors teachers and administrators offer an introduction to the rich vibrant spirituality of the congregation through a series of daily reflections on the themes of holy cross spirituality trust in god zeal compassion hope in the cross discipleship and education in the faith this revised edition includes a new foreword a new introduction by the authors new reflections new contributors including more international contributors than the previous edition and quotes from st andré bessette who was canonized in 2010 the ministries of the congregation of holy cross include ave maria press the university of notre dame the university of portland stonehill college king s college and many other holy cross schools and institutions around the world a historical perspective of the image of the cross as one of life instead of death what would christianity be like if the principle of a new creation were its guiding idea and the cross as life giving tree its central image after exploring this principle s deep roots in tradition worship and art this book proposes hildegard of bingen s concept of virditas green ness as a way to know it in daily life it claims the cross as healer of division both among followers of jesus and among the nations holy cross life giving tree is illustrated with cross images from throughout the christian world and compares eastern christian liturgies of the cross with those of the west it recounts the origins of the early jerusalem cult of the cross and invites readers to meditate on scripture passages used by ancient artists each of its six chapters ends with reflection questions for going deeper holy cross life giving tree is designed for use by study groups or by individuals
