what is our preconception about muslims do we continue to practice medical missions in a way that is no longer considered an effective means of presenting the gospel to the unreached is our gospel message biblically balanced and firmly contextualized in the context that we try to serve there are numerous questions that we may ask ourselves when we desire to share god's love with people who are still alienated from it christian cross cultural missions should reconsider the strategies and attitudes that no longer reflect biblical principles this book brings a lot of insightful thoughts and suggestions from the author's medical ministry experience in the arab world to those who want to reach out to the unreached the theology of shalom enables us to deeply understand god's ultimate purpose toward the world that he created and to devote our lives to bring people to his kingdom in the humble way that jesus has presented throughout his life on earth when he was with us this book demonstrates how christian medical missions can be manifested in a more biblical way and can serve people who have been physically injured and emotionally broken more effectively

this book is about how to know god s will through the scriptures and wisdom instead of by supposedly hearing god s voice all my books can be read online for free at wayneodonnell.com freely you have received freely give mt 10 8 this booklet is included in and comprises several sections in my book paul s decision making in acts anti charismatic pro jewish commentary on acts in 1980 garry friesen wrote decision making and the will of god a book that debunked the traditional view that god leads by inward impressions into his perfect specific will but bible teachers continue teach prayer is a two way conversation churches continue to question pastoral candidates about their call to the ministry and christians continue to try to discern god s inner voice to make decisions maybe it would help if we had more scholarly journal articles on the topic grudem i categorized the articles published in three refereed evangelical journals for the last five years before 2000 westminster theological journal trinity journal and the journal of the evangelical theological society not counting book reviews there were 257 scholarly articles on all topics but regarding god s guidance in our daily lives zero articles yet some understanding of god s guidance affects every christian every day of his or her life either garry friesen is right on that topic or he s wrong we should expect to see many more scholars contributing articles and books supporting and developing their viewpoints christians in the book of acts made their decisions by the word and wisdom not by listening for inward impressions i would love to read an exposition of the book of acts that showed paul the other apostles and their co workers making most of their decisions by listening for inward impressions but it would require reading that doctrine into the text rather than expositing it out of the text friesen in order to arrive at the conclusion of the traditional approach to decision making it is necessary to water down the biblical examples and spice up the biblical teaching examples like in acts are watered down to be less miraculous than they really are so we can think we re doing them too biblical teaching like in the epistles must be spiced up to be more specific than it really is for example a promise to israel to guide you continually is 58 11 doesn t actually say anything about christians being guided by inward impressions paul made most of his decisions by the word and wisdom not by inward impressions and only rarely by direct revelation even though he was the apostle on the cutting edge of jesus mission to bring the gospel to the gentiles most of paul s decisions in acts can be explained 17 principles he followed this book is a commentary on the new testament book of acts that is primarily about the apostle paul and his mission to the aegean all my books can be read online for free at wayneodonnell.com or bible.ag freely you have received freely give mt 10 8 in 1980 garry friesen wrote decision making and the will of god a book that debunked the traditional view that god leads by inward impressions into his perfect specific will but bible teachers continue teach prayer is a two way conversation churches continue to question pastoral candidates about their call to the ministry and christians continue to try to discern god s inner voice to make decisions christians in the book of acts made their decisions by the word and wisdom not by listening for inward impressions almost all paul's decisions in acts can be explained by 17 logical principles he followed paul was jesus surrogate to complete jesus mission to bring the gospel to the gentiles of the aegean sea and to the jews of the diaspora isaiah 49:1-6 listen o islands to me and hearken you jewish people from far the lord has called me from the womb he said it is a light thing that you would be my servant to restore the preserved of israel i will also give you for a light to the gentiles so that you may be my salvation to the end of the earth the first part of the book of acts asks can even gentiles be saved but the last part focuses on luke's real message the congregation should continue to look equally jewish and gentile even though gentiles become far more numerous in the congregation this is god's highest purpose gathering two into the one body of messiah according to ephesians all paul's epistles were written by the end of acts 28 there's no need for a speculated release and second roman imprisonment this book also provides an accounting of the movements of paul's coworkers and a history of charismaticism christian mysticism and the false doctrine of let go and let god

2024 outreach magazine church resource of the year big churches didn't create the problems facing today's congregations but our obsession with size has come at a great cost we're obsessed with bigness supersized meals and tv screens square footage and big churches what's the size of your church that question has stirred insecurities or stroked the ego of too many pastors for a long time we thought bigger was better church growth and numbers dominated our thoughts and conversations but more than ever people are feeling disconnected trust in the church is dwindling in de sizing the church pastor karl vaters takes us on a multi faceted journey through our centuries long obsession with size both in and outside the church and how it has negatively affected those who serve and worship in big and small congregations alike he also dispels some prevailing myths and affirms what was good and true about the church growth movement and he invites us to consider how removing church size from the equation can be an essential element in rebuilding trust restoring relationships and renewing our spiritual lives this book reframes the way we see the size of our churches and helps us see health and fruitfulness through de sized lenses the result renewed congregations that reach surrounding communities and faithfully engage culture for most christians sharing the gospel of jesus christ is one of our greatest priorities we sincerely preach the death burial and resurrection of christ to all that will listen hoping they will experience the salvation that we enjoy we convince them to accept jesus and then assist them in calling upon the name of the lord through prayer we counsel them to be sure they really really mean it and yet something is just not working most still don't seem to get it they do not become new creatures with new desires to serve god or even to obey him as god instead they continue to live much the same as the lost blind and in the dark are these all just insincere professions or is there something missing in our evangelism in behold me behold me evangelism that glorifies god you'll find the answer to these questions and more as we diligently compare scripture with scripture and attempt to develop a big picture perspective of god's marvelous plan for salvation you'll see how god's plan for evangelism opens blind eyes calls the lost home and raises men to new spiritual life the mention of the word evangelism can produce any number of responses from people many christians know that they should be sharing jesus with their friends and family members but fear of rejection stops them other factors also keep them from sharing one of the most common reasons that people don't win their friends to christ is not so much fear as the fact that they don't know how to evangelize people however you can influence your world for christ without overwhelming your friends without embarrassing yourself or without even being rejected one day i sat down and decided to record this book on video so that people could see how i live my life and how i influence those that come in contact with me this process is not scary and you won't be rejected if you live out the keys in this book instead the contents will actually free you up to be who you are with everyone that you know gone will be the masks that you wear for some people as they get to know the authentic christian that you are i am no theologian and have never had formal training at a school yet i have shared my personal faith in jesus with thousands of people as well as shared personal messages from jesus with many people through prophetic evangelism if you want to learn how to influence your world with the message of the gospel with confidence take a look inside your world and the lives of those around you will be impacted for god's glory and the kingdom
