the present volume is based on a conference held in october 2019 at the faculty of theology of humboldt university berlin as part of a common project of the australian catholic university the katholieke universiteit leuven and the humboldt university berlin the aim is to discuss the relationships of jews and christians in the first two centuries ce against the background of recent debates which have called into question the image of parting ways for a description of the relationships of judaism and christianity in antiquity one objection raised against this metaphor is that it accentuates differences at the expense of commonalities another critique is that this image looks from a later perspective at historical developments which can hardly be grasped with such a metaphor it is more likely that distinctions between jews christians jewish christians christian jews etc are more blurred than the image of parting ways allows in light of these considerations the contributions in this volume discuss the cogency of the parting of the ways model with a look at prominent early christian writers and places and suggest more appropriate metaphors to describe the relationships of jews and christians in the early period
