here stephen r palmquist attempts to revolutionise kant scholarship by demonstrating the high degree of systematic coherence and consistency in kant s entire philosophical project by using the principle of perspective as a technical tool palmquist reveals the theories in kant s critical works to be the architectonic elaboration of a single idea palmquist asserts that kant s system cannot be properly interpreted without understanding its essentially constructive theocentric orientation and its systematic character thus the unity which the author discusses replaces the typical interpretation of kant s theology and philosophy of religion as an austere deistic agnosticism and moral reductionism with a richer more practical framework for theological thinking
