how does one begin to understand the idea of a distinctive southern way of life a concept as enduring as it is disputed in this examination of the american south in national and global contexts celebrated historian charles reagan wilson assesses how diverse communities of southerners have sought to define the region s identity surveying three centuries of southern regional consciousness across many genres disciplines and cultural strains wilson considers and challenges prior presentations of the region advancing a vision of southern culture that has always been plural dynamic and complicated by race and class structured in three parts the southern way of life takes readers on a journey from the colonial era to the present from when complex ideas of southern civilization rooted in slaveholding and agrarianism dominated to the twenty first century rise of a modern multicultural southern living as wilson shows there is no singular or essential south but rather a rich tapestry woven with contestations contingencies and change if we seek to find true life we need to walk in the ways of god s kingdom we need to seek the kingdom above all else we can only walk in the manifested reality and glory of the kingdom once we walk by spirit implying surrendering first our kingdom laying down our crown and denying the self if we seek his kingdom then our kingdom our ways agendas ideas needs to be surrendered what we believe to be truth to be the right way or the correct path needs to be surrendered as we seek the true way of the lord which is the way of the kingdom jesus said he is the way truth and life meaning he is the way of the kingdom and if we seek the kingdom then we need to follow the lord jesus in spirit and truth for then we shall walk in god s order and his will we are called by jesus to walk the narrow road to deny the self to take up the cross and to love the lord above all there is no other way except in jesus for sustained life in spirit soul and body not the way of money not the way of status or power we need to know and discern the ways of the lord and to follow his path which leads to quiet rivers and green pastures in god there is hope joy and love as we follow him we follow the way to spiritual peace belonging and restoration
