this selection of poe s critical writings short fiction and poetry demonstrates an intense interest in aesthetic issues and the astonishing power and imagination with which he probed the darkest corners of the human mind the fall of the house of usher describes the final hours of a family tormented by tragedy and the legacy of the past in the tell tale heart a murderer s insane delusions threaten to betray him while stories such as the pit and the pendulum and the cask of amontillado explore extreme states of decadence fear and hate

i was sick sick unto death with that long agony and when they at length unbound me and i was permitted to sit i felt that my senses were leaving me the sentence the dread sentence of death was the last of distinct accentuation which reached my ears after that the sound of the inquisitorial voices seemed merged in one dreamy indeterminate hum it conveyed to my soul the idea of revolution perhaps from its association in fancy with the burr of a mill wheel this only for a brief period for presently i heard no more yet for a while i saw but with how terrible an exaggeration i saw the lips of the black robed judges they appeared to me white whiter than the sheet upon which i trace these words and thin even to grotesqueness thin with the intensity of their expression of firmness of immovable resolution of stern contempt of human torture
