coming out of one of the most contentious elections in history dennis johnson and lara brown have assembled an outstanding team of authors to examine one of the fiercest and most closely fought presidential elections of our time like the 2008 and 2012 editions of campaigning for president the 2016 edition combines the talents and insights of political scientists who specialize in campaigns and elections together with seasoned political professionals who have been involved in previous presidential campaigns campaigning for president is the only series on presidential campaigns that features both political scientists and professional consultants this book focuses on the most important questions of this most unusual presidential campaign what was the appeal of donald trump has twitter and social media become the dominant means of communicating how did fake news wikileaks and the russians factor in this election what happened to the obama coalition and why couldn t hillary clinton capitalize on it hundreds of millions of super pac dollars were raised and spent and much of that was wasted what happened is the wild west of online media the new norm for presidential contests these and many other questions are answered in the provocative essays by scholars and practitioners the volume also is packed with valuable appendixes a timeline of the presidential race biographical sketches of each candidate a roster of political consultants the primary and general election results exit polls and campaign spending new to the 2016 edition the 2016 presidential contest brings a completely new set of players policies and electoral challenges like the 2008 and 2012 editions the authors probe the strategies and tactics of the candidate campaigns and the outside organizations the chapters focus on donald trump and hillary clinton but also look at the bernie sanders insurgency the collapse of the mainstream republican candidates and the dynamics of the general election chapters also analyze the changes in campaign finance new technologies the role of social media and how fake news and subterfuge might become the new realities of presidential campaigning a cnn political analyst and a republican strategist reframe the discussion of the trump voter to answer the question what s next named one of the best books of the year by foreign affairs unlike most retellings of the 2016 election the great revolt provides a cohesive non wild eyed argument about where the republican party could be headed the atlantic political experts were wrong about the 2016 election and they continue to blow it predicting the coming demise of the president without pausing to consider the durability of the winds that swept him into office salena zito and brad todd have traveled over 27 000 miles of country roads to interview more than three hundred trump voters in ten swing counties what emerges is a portrait of a group of citizens who span job descriptions income brackets education levels and party allegiances united by their desire to be part of a movement larger than themselves they want to put pragmatism before ideology and localism before globalism and demand the respect they deserve from washington the 2016 election signaled a realignment in american politics that will outlast any one president zito and todd reframe the discussion of the trump voter to answer the question what's next in 1987 dr benjamin carson gained worldwide recognition for his part in the first successful separation of siamese twins joined at the back of the head the extremely complex and delicate operation five months in the planning and twenty two hours in the execution involved a surgical plan that carson helped initiate carson pioneered again in a rare procedure known as hemispherectomy giving children without hope a second chance at life through a daring operation in which he literally removed one half of their brain but such breakthroughs aren't unusual for ben carson he's been beating the odds since he was a child raised in inner city detroit by a mother with a third grade education ben lacked motivation he had terrible grades and a pathological temper threatened to put him in jail but sonya carson convinced her son that he could make something of his life even though everything around him said otherwise trust in god a relentless belief in his own capabilities and sheer determination catapulted ben from failing grades to the top of his class and beyond to a yale scholarship the university of michigan medical school and finally at age 33 the directorship of pediatric neurosurgery at johns hopkins hospital in baltimore maryland today dr ben carson holds twenty honorary doctorates and is the possessor of a long string of honors and awards including the horatio alger award induction into the great blacks in wax museum in baltimore maryland and an invitation as keynote speaker at the 1997 president's national prayer breakfast gifted hands is the riveting story of one man's secret for success tested against daunting odds and driven by an incredible mindset that dares to take risks this inspiring autobiography takes you into the operating room to witness surgeries that made headlines around the world and into the private mind of a compassionate god fearing physician who lives to help others through it all shines a humility quick wit and down to earth style that make this book one you won't easily forget an instant new york times and usa today bestseller part history and part cultural analysis the grift chronicles the nuanced history of black republicans clay cane lays out how black republicanism has been mangled by opportunists who are apologists for racism after the civil war the pillars of black republicanism were a balanced critique of both political parties civil rights for all americans reinventing an economy based on exploitation and most importantly building thriving black communities how did black republicanism devolve from revolutionaries like frederick douglass to the puppets in the trump era whether it's radical conservatives like south carolina senator tim scott or supreme court justice clarence thomas they are consistently viral news and continuously upholding egregious laws at the expense of their black brethren black faces in high places providing cover for explicit bigotry is one of the greatest threats to the liberation of black and brown people by studying these figures and their tactics cane exposes the grift and lays out a plan to emancipate our future
