le corps dans le roman des écrivaines syriennes contemporaines de martina censi explore les représentations du corps dans un corpus de romans en arabe publiés entre 2004 et 2011 par six écrivaines syriennes l auteure conjugue l analyse du texte littéraire avec la critique féministe et les études de genre par cette approche interdisciplinaire censi démontre que l attention réservée par ces écrivaines aux représentations du corps féminin et masculin témoigne de leurs engagements dans la lutte pour l émancipation des femmes mais aussi et surtout dans celle pour l affirmation de l individu dans la société syrienne contemporaine les corps des personnages marqués par leur différence unique sont le lieu symbolique de la négociation entre les instances individuelles et collectives in le corps dans le roman des écrivaines syriennes contemporaines martina censi explores the representation of the body in a selection of arabic novels published between 2004 and 2011 by six syrian women authors taking an interdisciplinary approach which combines analysis of the literary texts with feminist criticism and gender studies censi demonstrates that by focusing on the representation of female and male bodies these novelists deal not only with feminist issues related to women s emancipation the author reveals that they also engage in a broader analysis concerning the status of the individual in contemporary syrian society marked by their unique difference the characters bodies become the symbolic location for the negotiation between individual and collective claims how does one imagine plurality how does one find new strategies for writing diversity and polyphony how does one read the most challenging creative and critical works of the present time this bi lingual volume of twelve english and eight french papers proposes to breach linguistic critical frontiers by placing careful analysis of texts from different language traditions in a multi lingual and multi cultural dialogue in this collection of theoretically and politically aware close readings of contemporary cultural production the focus of analysis rests on the multiple and complex global convergences and interferences of cultural influences the collection foregrounds the work of innovative writers who seek to express the ungraspable presence of cultural newness at the same time as situating themselves in the richness of detail of local lives this volume most particularly finds a balance of critical approach between the everyday attempts at negotiation and survival and the insight brought to the reader by postcolonial syncretic and feminist theoretical analysis
