detailing the unfolding discovery of a crucial link in our evolution this book is written in the voice of walker whose involvement with proconsul began when his graduate supervisor analyzed the tree climbing adaptations in the arm and hand of this extinct creature today proconsul is the best known fossil ape in the world from the new york times bestselling author of Mama's Last Hug and Are We Smart Enough to Know How Smart Animals Are? a provocative argument that apes have created their own distinctive cultures in the Ape and the Sushi Master eminent primatologist Frans de Waal corrects our arrogant assumption that humans are the only creatures to have made the leap from the natural to the cultural domain the book's title derives from an analogy de Waal draws between the way behavior is transmitted in ape society and the way sushi making skills are passed down from sushi master to apprentice like the apprentice young apes watch their group mates at close range absorbing the methods and lessons of each of their elders actions responses long thought to be instinctive are actually learned behavior de Waal argues and constitute ape culture a delightful mix of intriguing anecdote rigorous clinical study adventurous field work and fascinating speculation the Ape and the Sushi Master shows that apes are not human caricatures but members of our extended family with their own resourcefulness and dignity

Down from the Trees man's amazing transition from tree dwelling ape ancestors covers the evolution of man from tree dwelling ape to Homo sapiens as he is today using easy to read language the author takes complex jargon filled material and extracts the essence of the topic and conveys it in a clear and engaging manner he approaches the subject of human evolution from three different disciplines fossil evidence and its interpretation evolutionary theory and its applicability and genetic evidence and its ability to unlock prehistoric information the third discipline has advanced unbelievably in the last few years and this book includes the most up to date research there is nothing more interesting to humans than the story of their origins the evolutionary process of a tree dwelling ape becoming a walking talking man who has developed the technology to walk on the moon transplant hearts or modify living things is no trivial story this book provides a fascinating and comprehensive view of what science has

this book is a family friendly compilation of stories about a variety of hilarious characters from maury county tennessee the author grew up in mount pleasant tennessee on the south end of the county and learned of the exploits of several unique characters as he travelled a route called the z after moving away he began telling tales about these characters the interest his listeners had in these stories fascinated him and he came to realize that other towns did not have a rich history like his hometown whether it is officer manley workman hooking a wrecker to fatty isabel to haul him to jail after he refused to go or tooterbill odom causing a massive explosion in a slag pit at his place of employment to give the townsfolk a spectacular fourth of july fireworks display these stories will keep you laughing out loud another thing the author came to realize through the years as he started including tales about himself in these story telling sessions is that he had also contributed to the history of the town in some amusing ways is there another place like mount pleasant tennessee you will have to read the book to decide
