it has often been said and rightly so that the world council of churches wcc is first and foremost a fellowship of churches this book is a vivid illustration of that reality the descriptions lists statistical data and other information presented in these pages give a striking picture of the extent and diversity of this fellowship it encompasses a christian population of some 590 million people in close to 150 countries in all regions of the world comprised of over 520 000 local congregations served by some 493 000 pastors and priests as well as countless elders teachers members of parish councils and others a handbook of churches and councils is not simply a handbook of the member churches of the wcc at all levels global regional and sub regional national and local member churches of the wcc interact with other churches which for various reasons are not formally part of the council's membership by combining in one volume all the conciliar and confessional bodies and their membership this book demonstrates concretely the reach of the ecumenical movement and also shows how much broader it is than the wcc alone it serves to remind us that ownership of the movement rests not only with the wcc but with all the partners and ultimately with god
